Case No.: C-12-04306 JST (JSC)

ORDER RE: JOINT LETTER (Dkt.
No. 67)

20 The Court is in receipt of the parties' joint discovery letter concerning Plaintiff's request to 21 depart from the District's model protective order, and the Court's previous Order regarding the 22 protective order (Dkt. No. 62), and include additional language in the parties' proposed protective
23 order which would allow Plaintiff to include Defendant's source code in electronically transmitted
24 documents. (Dkt. No. 67.) After carefully considering the parties' dispute, the Court concludes that 25 oral argument is unnecessary, see L.R. Civ. 7-1(b), and DENIES Plaintiff's request. Plaintiff has not
26 demonstrated any good cause for its request.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
